Destination Information

Singapore - This tiny republic sits just above the equator and the tip of the Malay peninsula. The trading port was put on the global map by Stamford Raffles, who negotiated the 1819 Treaty of Singapore, when the British East India Company opened up a trading port. Singapore passed through the hands of Britain, Japan and Malaysia before gaining full independence in 1965. Today, it has a highly developed economy and is ranked as a world leader in healthcare and education.

Day 2: Singapore

Meals: B

Breakfast at the hotel.

Make your own way to Tooth Relic Temple (facing Chinatown Visitor Centre) to meet guide (09:30). You will then proceed on a Walkabout Tour of Chinatown with your guide.

Begin your journey at the bustling Chinatown Market and Food Complex, where the aroma of local delicacies fills the air.

You will be lead through this vibrant hub, unveiling hidden gems and share in stories of its significance in Singapore History at approximately 10:30 stop at Nooks and Nibbles then, wander through the smaller stalls like the famous durian stall and shops offering local sweet bakes. Experience authentic flavours as you taste exotic fruits and traditional pastries that have delighted locals for generations.

Later, conclude your tour at Maxwell Food Centre, a food lover's paradise known for its diverse hawker stalls. Indulge in iconic dishes like succulent soy sauce chicken rice and creamy egg tarts. You will enjoy local delicacies at the Food Centre (guide assists with purchasing food). Learn the unique local practice of "choping" (reserving) seats, where patrons reserve their tables with a tissue packet. The tour will conclude at 12:30. Make your own way back to the hotel.
