Destination Information

Fukuoka (Hakata) – Fukuoka sits on the northern shore of Japan's Kyushu Island. It is Kyushu's largest city, and the sixth-largest city in all of Japan. As the closest major city to the Asian mainland, it has a long history as a prominent merchant harbour and centre of trade. One of the main districts here, Hakata, was previously a separate city on the east bank of the river. The two cities were combined in the late 19th century. Although Hakata now technically refers to a specific district, you will find that some locals, signs and place names still refer to the whole city as Hakata.

Day 3: Explore Nagasaki

Meals: B, L, D

Head to the train station and board the Limited Express service to Nagasaki on the western coast - a journey of approximately two hours. Upon arrival, enjoy a stroll through the Glover Garden, an open-air museum built for the Scottish merchant who contributed to the industrialisation of Japan. Visit the Oura Catholic Church and Atomic Bomb Museum before returning to Fukuoka by train.

You will be on your feet for approximately 4-5 hours today. Please note that Nagasaki is a hilly city and good shoes are recommended.

Please note that the above timings are approximate. Throughout your time in Japan, there may be occasions when your morning and afternoon excursions are swapped over, in order to match local availability, or to avoid congestion at certain sites. Your guide will have the most up-to-date information.

Please also note that removing your shoes is a typical requirement in many venues across Japan, including temples, tea houses, cultural venues, and even some boats and restaurants. Bare feet are not usually accepted. Therefore, we recommend carrying a spare pair of socks in your day bag throughout your time in Japan.

Destination Information

Nagasaki - Nagasaki is Japan's closest port city to mainland Asia, founded by the Portuguese in the 16th century. It is widely known as the second Japanese city to be destroyed by an atomic bomb in WWII, three days after Hiroshima. Within seconds, more than ten percent of the city's population had been wiped out.

Thomas Glover – Thomas Glover, a Scottish merchant who found favour with Emperor Meiji after helping supply the guns and warships that toppled the Shogunate (military rulers) in the 1860s. These events marked the end of foreign seclusion, and Nagasaki remained a prepared hub for Westerners in Japan until WWII.

Glover Garden - This lovely hilltop park enjoys views over Nagasaki Harbour. The park was built for Thomas Glover and contains the houses of several Western merchants, including Glover's own. Look out for the statues of the composer Puccini and Tamaki Miura, the Japanese opera singer who famously performed the role of Cio-Cio-San in Madame Butterfly, which is set in Nagasaki.

Oura Catholic Church - Christian missionaries, including Portuguese Jesuits, were very active in Kyushu and western Japan during the 16th century. Though initially tolerated, Christianity was eventually banned by the Shogunate from 1587 to 1612; it did not publicly re-emerge for more than 200 years. After Emperor Meiji was restored, religious freedom was declared in Japan in 1873. When the French expats in Nagasaki built Oura Cathedral in Nagasaki in 1864, it prompted many 'hidden Christians', who had been practising Christianity in secret for generations, to come forward and publicly declare their faith. The church is dedicated to the memory of the 26 Christians who were executed in 1597.

Atomic Bomb Museum - Commemorating the atomic bombing of Nagasaki in August 1945, the museum was built in remembrance of and with respect for the victims and survivors. The museum highlights firsthand accounts from survivors of the bomb.

Day 4: Miyajima Island

Meals: B, L, D

Bid farewell to Kyushu and board the bullet train (shinkansen) for a speedy 1h40-minute journey to Hiroshima, located on Japan's largest island, Honshu.

Please note that due to luggage restrictions on the bullet train, your luggage will be transferred directly to Osaka (max 1 case per person). You will need an overnight bag for your two nights in Hiroshima.

Upon arrival in Hiroshima, take the ferry across the Seto Inland Sea to the holy island of Miyajima. Here, visit the Itsukushima Shrine and enjoy a momiji manju making experience, during which you will see how these local treats have been made for more than a hundred years. Later, return to Hiroshima for dinner.

Destination Information

Hiroshima – At 8.15 a.m. on 6th August 1945, the US military dropped the world's first nuclear bomb on Hiroshima. The destructive power obliterated nearly everything within a 2km radius, killing more than 70,000 people immediately; a further 20-70,000 subsequently died from injuries or radiation within the next year. Today, the city has risen phoenix-like from the ashes; it is now a powerful international symbol for peace.

Miyajima – Miyajima is a small island outside of Hiroshima. While officially named Itsukushima, the island is more commonly referred to as Miyajima, meaning 'Shrine Island'. This is because the island is well-known for its main attraction, Itsukushima Shrine, a giant torii gate, which at high tide seems to float on the water.

Momiji Manju - A local speciality on the island of Miyajima, momiji manju is a small, maple leaf shaped cake filled with red bean paste.

Day 5: Hiroshima Highlights

Meals: B, L, D

Spend the day in Hiroshima. Begin with a visit to the Peace Memorial Park and Museum where you will have the opportunity to pay homage to the victims of the 1945 atomic bomb. Please be aware that the museum may be confronting and upsetting for some group members and it is at your discretion if you wish to visit or enjoy time at leisure exploring the Peace Memorial Park.

Enjoy okonomiyaki for lunch before ascending Orizuru Tower to view the city from above, followed by a stroll through the historical Shukkeien Garden.

You will be on your feet for approximately 4 hours today.

Destination Information

Peace Memorial Park and Museum – The Peace Memorial Park and Museum is one of the most prominent features of the city. The trees, lawns and walking paths are in stark contrast to the surrounding downtown area. Before the bomb, this area was the political and commercial heart of the city and is why it was chosen as the target. The museum focuses on the events of August 6th and the ensuing outcome for the residents.

Okonomiyaki - Okonomiyaki is a traditional Japanese savoury pancake, the name is derived from the word "okonomi" meaning "how you like" and "yaki" meaning "cooked".

Orizuru Tower - The 50-metre-tall Orizuru Tower is located beside the A-Bomb Dome and is one of the few tall buildings around the Peace Memorial Park. It offers a great view of the surroundings, including the less commonly seen view of the A-Bomb Dome from above.

Shukkeien Garden - Shukkeien Garden was created following the completion of Hiroshima Castle in 1620. Its name can be translated to mean "shrunk scenery garden", perfect for a garden that represents beautiful valleys, mountains and forests in miniature form.

Day 6: Admire Himeji Castle

Meals: B, L, D

Depart Hiroshima by bullet train. An hour's journey brings you to Himeji, where you will explore the magnificent 17th-century Himeji Castle and the neighbouring Koko-en Gardens. Later, take the Limited Express to Osaka, your home for the next two nights.

Please note: The castle is largely in its original condition, including steep, polished wooden steps, so please be mindful of your step when strolling around. You will have to remove your shoes before walking along some of the wooden floors. You will be on your feet for 3-3.5 hours during the visit. If you do not wish to visit the castle or climb the steps, you may enjoy the grounds independently instead; please inform your guide in this instance.

After the reopening in March 2015, Himeji Castle has welcomed many visitors. As such, they now issue numbered tickets to visitors in order to limit the number of people who can enter the Main Keep, reducing congestion, waiting time, and to protect the cultural properties. Please note that this means that there may be rare cases where some visitors are not allowed to enter the Main Keep.

Destination Information

Himeji Castle – The largest castle in Japan, Himeji is also widely considered one of Japan's most beautiful castles. It is one of the best-preserved original castles in Japan, having never been destroyed by war, earthquake or fire. Though fortifications began in the 1400s, the castle as it survives today was completed in 1609. Floors are largely unfurnished.

Koko-en Garden – Koko-en opened in 1992, but its 9 beautiful gardens were built in the style of the Edo period of 1603-1807. Edo period gardens are characterised by their return to extravagance and recreation, in sharp contrast with the minimalism of the Zen-influenced Muromachi period, which had come before. The gardens are built on the former site of the feudal lord's west residence.

Osaka – Osaka, formerly known as Naniwa, is Japan's third largest city and remains the economic powerhouse of the Kansai Region.

Day 7: Osaka & Nara Day Trip

Meals: B, L, D

Begin with a visit to Osaka's Umeda Sky Building for panoramic views across the city. After lunch, drive approximately one hour to Nara, Japan's former imperial capital, which is home to 8 UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Sightseeing here will be about 3 hours on foot, and may include a walk of up to 15 minutes from the coach parking area. Look out for the park's beautiful resident sika deer, who have learned to bow to visitors!

Visit Todaiji Temple, the world's largest wooden structure. This temple is home to the Daibutsu, an eighth-century bronze Buddha standing almost 15 metres tall. Finally, enjoy an ink-making and calligraphy class before returning to Osaka. Please note that as with many sites in Japan, you will be required to remove your shoes before entering the venue.

Destination Information

Umeda Sky Building - The Umeda Sky Building is one of the tallest buildings in Osaka Prefecture and is one of the most recognisable landmarks in Osaka. The 173 metre tall building consists of two towers connect by the stunning Floating Garden Observatory, which offers panoramic views of the city.

Nara – Nara was Japan's first permanent capital, from 710 until 794, when it was moved to Kyoto. It remains full of historic treasures, including 8 UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Todaiji Temple – The UNESCO-listed Todaiji Temple is one of the Seven Great Temples of Japan and is home to the Daibutsu, one of the largest bronze Buddha statues in the world.

Day 8: Kyoto's Temples and Arashiyama

Meals: B, L, D

Drive approximately 90 minutes to Kyoto. This enchanting city was the capital of Japan for some thousand years, and remains the epitome of traditional Japan.

Upon arrival, stroll through the Arashiyama Bamboo Forest and admire the towering thickets. Also visit Ryoanji, the Zen 'temple of the peaceful dragon' and the famous Golden Pavilion of Kinkakuji.

Sightseeing on foot will be approximately 4 hours today.

Destination Information

Kyoto – Kyoto was the ancient capital of Japan from 794 until the late 1860s, when it was moved to Tokyo (then Edo) following the Meiji Restoration. Many national treasures can be found in Kyoto and in nearby Nara, including old shrines and temples, screen paintings, beautiful gardens, and statues of Buddha.

Ryoanji Temple – Ryoan-ji Temple is a Zen temple renowned for its garden, which features a dry, sand landscape with large rocks and smooth pebbles. The garden has fifteen stones, cleverly arranged so that one rock is always hidden from view at any angle. Fifteen is considered the number of perfection; just as no individual is perfect, viewers are unable to see all the stones. It is a reminder of one's imperfect and limited perspective.

Kinkakuji Temple (Golden Pavilion) – This Zen Buddhist temple sits over a 'mirror pond' in a classical garden of the 'go round' style. The top two floors are covered in pure gold leaf. The temple is an excellent example of the Japanese design principle of 'shakkei', meaning borrowed scenery, which connects the building with its wider setting.

Day 9: Tea Ceremony & Fan Painting

Meals: B, L, D

The day begins with a visit to Kiyomizu-dera, one the most visited temples in Kyoto. You will spend 1.5 hours on foot exploring the temple.

Later, witness the age-old rituals of a tea ceremony before a Zen meditation experience. Afterwards, your immersive experience continues with a short fan painting class, where you will learn the technique of this highly refined and sought-after visual art.

You will need to remove your shoes at the temple and at the crafts venue.

This afternoon, take a stroll in the Gion area, Kyoto's historic geisha district. Geisha are called geiko in Kyoto dialect; the term for a trainee geisha is maiko. Please note that spotting a geisha is quite rare, partially due to poor behaviour by global tourists in recent years. If you are lucky enough to spot a geisha, please behave respectfully. Photographing a geisha without her consent is punishable with a fine according to Kyoto law.

Destination Information

Kiyomizu-dera - Kiyomizu-dera literally translates to "Pure Water Temple" after being founded on the site of Otowa Waterfall in 780. The temple is famous for its wooden stage that juts out 13 metres above the hillside. The numerous cherry and maple trees below offer a beautiful sea of colours in spring and autumn.

Gion – Historically, Gion was Kyoto’s most famous geisha district, filled with shops, restaurants and ochaya (teahouses). Today, it is still a charming area to wander, with beautiful, well-preserved architecture lining its charming streets.

Day 10: Explore Kanazawa

Meals: B, L, D

This morning travel approximately 2 hours by Limited Express train to Kanazawa. On arrival, head to Kenrokuen, one of the Three Great Gardens of Japan, and soak up its beauty before visiting the Nomura Samurai House and Kunani Pottery Factory. You will be required to remove your shoes.

Please note that your luggage will be transferred directly to Takayama (max one suitcase per person). You will need to pack an overnight bag for one night in Kanazawa.

Destination Information

Kanazawa – Kanazawa is the capital of the Ishikawa Prefecture and is known for its beautiful samurai and geisha districts, as well as its stunning Kenrokuen Garden.

Kenrokuen – One of Japan’s ‘Three Great Gardens’, Kenrokuen dates back to the early 17th century and is notable for its stunning beauty in all seasons. The spacious grounds were previously the outer garden of Kanazawa Castle, constructed by the Maeda family over a period of almost two centuries. The name Kenrokuen means 'having six features', these six being spaciousness, tranquillity, artifice, antiquity, water sources and magnificent panoramas.

Nomura Samurai House - Nomura was a high-ranked samurai of the Meiji Period. Visit this restored Samurai residence, with its beautiful garden.

Day 11: Shirakawago Village

Meals: B, L, D

Drive from Kanazawa to Takayama, stopping en route at Inami and Shirakawa-go. In Inami, enjoy a sake wooden cup making experience and sake tasting. Afterwards, continue to the UNESCO-listed village of Shirakawago, famous for its traditional wooden gassho farmhouses. With their steep thatched roofs, these houses are some of the most charming sights in Japan.

Continue to your hotel in Takayama for a two-night stay.

Destination Information

Takayama – Boasting one of Japan's most atmospheric townscapes, the layout of Takayama dates back to the 17th century and is home to much Meiji architecture.

Shirakawago Village – This UNESCO-listed heritage village is famous for its unusual architectural style known as Gassho-Zukuri (lit. hands in prayer). The steeply thatched roofs of these houses are tilted at a steep angle for two reasons: first, to prevent heavy snow from accumulating in winter, and second, to create spacious attics for silkworm cultivation. The houses are usually built from local cypress wood.

Gifu Prefecture – The mountainous terrain here is not conducive to growing rice; buckwheat is the dominant crop. The region is known for its washi paper production and silkworm farming.

Day 12: Discover Takayama

Meals: B, L, D

Take a morning walking tour of Takayama. During the Edo period, this lovely mountain town was a hub for craftsmen, farmers and merchants from the surrounding mountains.

Head to the Miyagawa Morning Market, where you can sample some of the delicious local fruits and vegetables (at your own expense). Later, take a leisurely stroll around the traditional houses of the area and visit Takayama Jinya. If local opening hours permit, you will also visit the Takayama Festival Floats Exhibition Hall.

Enjoy some time this afternoon at leisure to explore the town.

Destination Information

Miyagawa Morning Market – Here, there are a number of stalls selling fresh vegetables, local craft works and local food products.

Takayama Festival Floats Exhibition Hall – This hall exhibits some of the 'yatai' from Takayama's famous festival; a twice yearly celebration when these huge parade festival floats are carried through the streets. Some date as far back as the 17th century.

Takayama Jinya – A former government office dating back to the Edo Period, Takayama Jinya is the only one of its type still remaining. The main work of the office was to handle legal cases and tax collection.

Kamisannomachi Street – This well-preserved part of the historic city features traditional houses, sake breweries, shops and cafes — some of which have been operating for centuries.

Day 13: Snow Monkeys

Meals: B, L, D

Drive through the Japanese Alps, enjoying the mountain scenery en route to Matsumoto and Nagano.

After lunch, head to Yudanaka in search of the snow monkeys (Japanese Macaques) at Jigokudani Yaen-Koen Monkey Park. Good shoes are required. Enjoy a gentle trek through the sloping valley (30-40 minutes each way) to reach the monkey pool, and watch them bathe and play in the warm waters.

Drive south to Matsumoto and check in at your hotel.

Please note: From the parking area to the main snow monkey pool at Yudanaka, you will need to walk 30-40 minutes each way through the sloping forested valley. Good shoes are required, and the start and end points of the trail are steeper than the main walk; paths may be slippery after rain or snow. If you do not wish to walk through the valley, you will be able to wait in the café area near to the coach park.

Please keep in mind that the snow monkeys are wild and sighting them is never guaranteed, particularly during the breeding season which runs from late September through to November.

Destination Information

Jigokudani Yaen-Koen – Home to Japanese Macaques, also known as Snow Monkeys, Jigokudani literally means ‘hell’s valley’. It is named this because of the steam and boiling water that bubbles out of small crevices in the ground. It is in the baths of this hot water that the resident Japanese Macaques like to soak. The monkeys live in large social groups and it can be quite entertaining to watch their interactions.

Day 14: Matsumoto Castle

Meals: B, L, D

Explore the formidable 16th century Matsumoto Castle, nicknamed ‘Crow Castle’ for its intense black exterior. Later, head to a miso house and learn about the process of making this famous Japanese seasoning before lunch. After lunch, drive approximately 1 hour to Narai-juku, one of the best-preserved post towns on the Nakasendo Way, and soak up its historic atmosphere. Continue a further 1 hour by road to the Suwa region and check into your hotel.

Please note: You will need to walk around 15 minutes on flat road to reach the castle from the coach parking area. You will need to remove your shoes to access the castle; please note that there are some very steep wooden stairs to reach the higher floors. Please take your time and be mindful of those coming the other way. If you choose not to look inside the castle, you can enjoy the surrounding gardens, moat and architecture.

Destination Information

Matsumoto Castle – Nicknamed Crow Castle due to its dark black exterior, the Matsumoto Castle dates back to the 16th century and is the oldest wooden castle in Japan. It is a 'hirajiro', meaning that the castle is built on plains rather than a hill or mountain

Miso - Miso is a traditional Japanese seasoning, a fermented paste created from a mixture of soybeans, sea salt and rice koji. It is often used in soups, marinades and condiments.

Day 15: Mount Fuji

Meals: B, L, D

Drive approximately 1 and a half hours by road to the spectacular Fuji region. The calm waters of the local lakes, formed by past volcanic eruptions, reflect Fuji's picture-perfect cone.

The 5th Station is occasionally closed due to inclement weather. If the centre is closed, or if your guide feels that visibility is too poor to make this visit worthwhile, your guide may take you to Fuji San World Heritage Centre instead (subject to local opening hours).

Later, continue to tranquil Lake Ashi, and take a short cruise across the water before a short ride on the Komagatake cable car (weather permitting) for spectacular views of Mount Fuji and the lake below. On a clear day, you can even see Tokyo and the Pacific Ocean. Later, continue your journey by road for around 2 hours to Tokyo, Japan's capital city.

Destination Information

All meals (excluding drinks) are included in our fully inclusive classic group tours, from dinner on the group's arrival until breakfast the day of departure. On all Group tours, Extensions and Pre & Post Stays, no refund will be given for any meals missed due to your flight timings, or personal choice.

Japanese cuisine is delicious, colourful and healthy. It is based on combining staple foods, typically rice or noodles, with a soup and okazu — dishes made from fish, meat, or vegetables to add flavor to the staple food. These are typically flavored with dashi, miso, and soy sauce. Breakfast will mostly be buffet style but maybe a set menu. Your meal at lunch and dinner will likely be a pre-set option or bento box style including a combination of the following: rice and miso soup, noodles or fish and vegetables. It is also important to note that in local Japanese restaurants, it is customary for most meals to be served at room temperature and that it is sometimes customary to remove your shoes prior to entering a restaurant.

The schedule of meals is designed so that you can experience the local dishes, their individual flavours as well as the different ways they are prepared and cooked throughout Japan. Food is an important element of Japanese culture. It is a time for families and friends to come together and much of family life revolves around the dinner table. Most food is eaten with chopsticks so best get practicing as cutlery is not always available at restaurants.

It is imperative that you clearly communicate any and all dietary needs when booking, and don't forget to reaffirm them during your welcome briefing with your tour guide. However, it is crucial to understand that local restaurants might face limitations in accommodating specific dietary requests, particularly in the cases of gluten-free, celiac, or vegan requirements. Please bear in mind that finding gluten-free options may not be as effortless as it is in Australia. Regrettably, we cannot assure that the food served will be entirely free from allergens.

For your convenience, generally, at the end of a long travelling day your meal will be at the hotel restaurant or nearby local restaurant.

Tea and coffee facilities are not always available in all hotels so consider bringing your own supply of coffee and tea bags. Water is included with meals, but other drinks are at personal expense.

Please read your travel guide, which you will receive with your final documents for more information about eating in Japan. We recommend that when it comes to Japanese food, you stay open minded and try to be adventurous!

ACCOMMODATION:

Your accommodation is selected for convenience of location, comfort or character, and can range from a business hotel in one city to a family run guesthouse in a smaller town. In more remote areas, accommodation may be of a lower standard and may not have all western amenities. In the Fuji area, hotels tend to be more traditional in style and culture. In this area, you may be asked to take your shoes off at the door and store them in a secure locker – this is very traditional Japanese culture. Please note, double bed requests can be made at time of booking but cannot be guaranteed.

Hotels are generally rated as local three to four-star standard, but please note that there is no international classification system for hotels and differences in facilities and quality do exist between Australia and Japan.

Please note that in Japan, hotel rooms and bathrooms are renowned for being small. Standard single rooms are usually smaller than a standard double or twin room, contain one small double bed (or one single bed), and are designed for one person to use. All group tour hotels have private western bathroom facilities, air conditioning, TV and a telephone. Hotels in Japan often do not have porters and you will be required to carry your own luggage. If you experience any difficulty, please speak to your National Escort/Local Guide. Rest assured that all hotels used by Wendy Wu Tours are regularly inspected by our staff and our partners to ensure that standards meet your needs.

PORTERAGE:

Please be aware that portorage is not included on our tours in Japan. You will therefore need to be able to handle your own luggage within the hotel and when using transportation like trains and coaches.

TRANSFERS:

As we offer our customers a variety of airlines to suit your needs, passengers will arrive/depart in Japan at various times during the day.

You will be met on arrival at the airport by an English-speaking assistant who will provide instructions for you to make your own way to your hotel using the direct airport bus. Please note the bus will be shared with other passengers and is not just for Wendy Wu Tours clients.

If your hotel is more than a 5-minute walk from the drop-off bus stop, a taxi will be arranged for you prior to leaving the airport to meet you at the drop-off bus stop.

When you check-in to your hotel, a welcome letter will be provided with details of the group's welcome dinner or first meeting point. You will meet your national escort at dinner or, if arriving late, the following morning after breakfast at the welcome meeting.

On your departure day, you will be provided with tickets for your return airport bus, to make your own way to the airport.

TRANSPORT:

Coaches: Coaches with air conditioning are used on our group tours for city sightseeing, short excursions to the countryside and longer transfers where necessary. Roads in Japan are extremely well maintained and are comparatively smooth compared with the rest of Asia. Coaches and mini buses do not have onboard toilet facilities, however frequent bathroom stops are made for passengers comfort.

Bullet trains: Second class reserved seats are booked for our groups on bullet trains; there will be toilet facilities on board. Due to the limited space on bullet trains, a separate luggage transfer service will be arranged for all suitcases (1 case per person). You will need to pack a separate overnight bag to carry on the train as your suitcase will not arrive until the following day after a bullet train journey. Your guide will indicate when you will need to prepare for this throughout your tour.

DEVELOPMENT IN JAPAN:

Japan is a developed country and as such matches the West in modernity and technological advances. Japan is an extremely safe country and takes great responsibility in maintaining high safety standards.

GROUP SIZE:

Most of our groups consist of 10 travellers or more and will be accompanied by a national escort. There will usually be no more than 28 travellers in each group although you may encounter other Wendy Wu tour groups while you are travelling.

All our departures are guaranteed to operate with a minimum of 8 travellers booked (unless cancelled due to factors beyond our control). A national escort will accompany each group of 10 or more. However, at our discretion we may operate departures with a smaller group size as we try to operate advertised departures wherever it is viable to do so.

TIPPING POLICY:

Although tipping in Japan is not customary, if you feel you have received an excellent service, please feel free to tip your guide at your discretion.

CULTURAL DIFFERENCE:

Japanese society and culture are built on intricate social etiquette and customs. As foreigners, we are not expected to be knowledgeable about all etiquette, but it will make your time in Japan more enjoyable if you are respectful of local customs. Some examples of scenarios you may encounter include removing your shoes and hats when entering a temple or house (some restaurants as well). You may be supplied with slippers at some places, but please come prepared with plenty of spare socks, and shoes that are easy to take off for the fairly regular occasions when they must be removed. Your National Escort will advise you of some of these other customs at the beginning of your tour.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS:

If you are travelling within the below Japan public holidays, please note that celebrations can last a couple of days and during these times some businesses will be closed. Coach, air and train travel may also be affected. Tourist attractions will be open; but may be crowded. Showa Day is on 29th April every year, which will start Golden Week which then runs from 29th April – 5th May, Constitution Memorial Day is on 3rd May, and Emperor's Birthday is on 23rd February every year.

SOUVENIRS:

We want to be able to give you an opportunity to buy souvenirs, so we include some stops at museums or exhibitions which demonstrate a craft or product unique to that region with pieces available to buy. We understand that souvenir hunting is not for everyone, so we aim to take you to places, which hold local interest. We trust you will enjoy these opportunities to learn about local arts and crafts and understand their historical and cultural importance.

LUGGAGE:

All travellers are limited to two items of luggage each: a suitcase with a maximum weight of 20kg and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum weight of five kilograms. It is essential that your luggage is lockable. Please note that authorities will only allow bottles onto the aircraft if they have been checked in as main baggage. Bottles in hand luggage may be confiscated.

PERSONAL EXPENSES AND OPTIONAL TOURINGS:

Personal Expense - You will need to take some extra money to cover drinks, laundry and souvenirs, plus any additional sightseeing that may be offered to you. Based on the advice of previous customers an approximate amount of AU$250 per person, per week should be sufficient; however, for those that cannot resist a bargain, consider allocating a higher amount.

It is highly recommended that extra care and attention is paid when exchanging money when travelling to cities outside of Tokyo. US Dollars and Australian Dollars can be exchanged at Narita Airport and in some hotels, provided the Australian currency is new and undamaged. We suggest exchanging your money before travelling to smaller towns, as exchange facilities can be very limited. Your National Escort will remind you to do this before departure.

CLIMBING STEPS:

Sightseeing at nearly all the palaces, fortresses and some temples involves climbing quite a number of steps. These palaces were built to provide defense against potential invaders so nearly all of them stand on top of a hill, while the interiors have layers of narrow hallways and steps to slow down the advance of enemies once they were inside. The steps tend to be quite large, not level and sometimes without handrails. Buddhist temples or pagodas also tend to be built at an elevation, as this is the most auspicious position according to ancient beliefs. This means you sometimes need to walk from the bus park to the entrance, and/or need to climb some steps inside.

People with knee or hip injuries who have poor balance or are otherwise unable to complete these activities independently should consider the suitability of this itinerary carefully.

VACCINATIONS AND YOUR HEALTH:

We recommend that you contact either your GP or Travelvax (1300 360 164) for advice on vaccinations and travel health. Travelvax has a comprehensive website that you may also find useful www.travelvax.com.au

BEFORE YOU LEAVE:

We strongly recommend registering your travel plans with www.smarttraveller.gov.au as in the event of an emergency, Australian Consular assistance will be more readily available. You can also access the Australian Government's travel advisory service for up to date information about your destination on the same website.

AFTER YOUR BOOKING:

Once you have booked with Wendy Wu Tours, you will receive a confirmation invoice including a visa application form (if applicable), and a help sheet. Your final documentation pack will be sent to you approximately 2-3 weeks prior to departure.
