DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrive Jeju

Make your way to South Korea's largest island, Jeju, where you will be met by a driver and transferred to your hotel to check in.

Enjoy the rest of your day at leisure.

Flights to Jeju Island are not included in the base package but can be added with a supplement. Please contact our reservations team.

Destination Information

Jeju Island – Jeju Island has long featured as the country's top domestic travel destination, attracting people from across the country with its beautiful beaches, lush countryside and fresh seafood.

Day 2: Jeju Island (East Course)

Meals: B, L

Make your own way to the designated meeting point for a full-day shared coach tour of eastern Jeju. Begin at Micheon Cave, a natural lava tube within Ilchulbong, where you can also explore landscaped gardens and sculptures. Continue to, Seongeup Folk Village to discover traditional homes, stone walls and local customs.

After lunch, visit Gwangchigi Beach for views of Seongsan Ilchulbong Peak across the volcanic shoreline. Then watch a demonstration by Jeju's haenyeo female divers, who gather seafood without any breathing apparatus.

Continue to UNESCO-listed Seongsan Ilchulbong, also known as Sunrise Peak, for an approximately one-hour trek to the peak, with views over the surrounding coastline.

The last stop is at Hamdeok Beach, known for its white sand and turquoise waters.

Return to your pick-up/drop-off point, or request an optional drop-off at Dongmun Traditional Market, where you may like to browse the street food and other stalls independently.

Please note: Transfers between your hotel and the sightseeing tour's meeting and drop-off points are not included. You will need to arrange these independently.

Please note: Your itinerary may vary according to weather conditions and depending on the closure days of the attractions. Sunrise Peak is closed on the first Monday of the month. If the Haenyeo divers are unable to work on the day of your visit, you may visit the Haenyeo Museum instead, excluding Mondays, when it is closed.

Meeting times and locations are subject to change and should be re-confirmed before the tour. Please arrive 10 minutes before your departure time.

Destination Information

Micheon Cave – A natural lava tube within Ilchulland Ecology Park, surrounded by landscaped gardens and sculptures. Cool, shadowy corridors and unique rock formations create a mysterious atmosphere.

Seongeup Folk Village – A traditional village, which was the administrative capital of the region in the 15th century. The village sits at the foot of Mount Hallasan, and proudly preserves Jeju's historic homes, stone walls and local customs that have been handed down through generations.

Gwangchigi Beach – A picturesque and peaceful beach known for its stunning black sand, clear waters, and beautiful views of Seongsan Ilchulbong (Sunrise Peak). The beach offers a unique landscape, surrounded by lush fields and dramatic volcanic formations.

Sunrise Peak (Seongsan Ilchulbong Peak) – Formed by volcanic eruptions in shallow seawater, this striking tuff cone rises around 180 metres above sea level. Its distinctive crater and coastal setting make it one of Jeju's most recognisable landmarks.

Haenyeo demonstration – The show offers a fascinating glimpse into the traditional fishing practices of Jeju Island's renowned female divers, known as "Haenyeo." These skilled women dive into the ocean without oxygen tanks to collect seafood using only their breath and diving skills. The show highlights their incredible strength, endurance, and deep connection to the sea.

Hamdeok Beach – A white-sand beach with turquoise waters and seaside cafés.

Dongmun Traditional Market - (Optional drop-off) Jeju's oldest and most vibrant covered market, selling local produce, seafood, street food and souvenirs. The dedicated evening market includes a number of street food stalls, with fire-torched black pork being the signature dish.

Day 3: Jeju Island (South & West Course)

Meals: B, L

Make your own way to the designated meeting point for a full-day shared coach tour of southern and western Jeju.

Begin at the 1100 Altitude Wetland on Hallasan, where wooden boardwalks lead through this high-altitude habitat. (Please note: This visit does not include a climb to Hallasan's summit.)

Continue to the UNESCO-listed Jusangjeolli Hexagon Lava Cliff to admire its striking basalt columns beside the sea. Later, visit the three-tiered Cheonjeyeon Waterfalls.

After lunch, visit the O'sulloc Tea Museum and surrounding tea fields to learn about Korean tea culture. Continue to Songak Mountain, where coastal walking paths offer views towards the mountains of Hallasan and Sanbangsan. Make a brief stop at Bomunsa Temple, at the foot of Sanbangsan, before returning to the pick-up/drop-off point.

Please note: Transfers between your hotel and the sightseeing tour's meeting and drop-off points are not included. You will need to arrange these independently.

Please note: Your itinerary may vary according to weather conditions and depending on the closure days of the attractions, Day 2 may operate as the South & West Coast course and Day 3 as the East Coast course, or vice versa.

Meeting times and locations are subject to change and will be re-confirmed before the tour:

Destination Information

Mount Halla 1100 Altitude Wetland – This unique wetland habitat sits at 1100 metres above sea level on Mount Hallasan. Wooden boardwalks offer scenic trails and the chance to spot diverse plant species, including rare alpine flora.

Jusangjeolli Hexagon Lava Cliff – These striking hexagonal basalt columns formed as volcanic lava cooled upon hitting the ocean, creating geometric pillars along Jeju's coastline.

Cheonjeyeon Waterfall - Known as "The Pond of the Gods.", these three waterfalls flow through lush forest. Local legend tells of heavenly maidens descending to bathe in the pools.

O'sulloc Tea Museum – Established by Korean tea brand O'sulloc, this museum explores Korea's tea history and traditions, with Jeju's green tea fields providing a scenic backdrop.

Songak Mountain – Shaped by volcanic activity, Mount Songaksan features a distinctive double-crater formation. Its coastal paths offer striking landscape views of neighbouring mountains and islands.

Bomunsa Temple - Set beneath Sanbangsan's immense bell-shaped volcanic dome, this Buddhist temple overlooks Jeju's southwest coast. Its mountain backdrop and open sea views create a striking setting for the temple buildings.

Day 4: Depart Jeju

Meals: B

This morning is free at leisure before you transfer to the airport for your onward flight.

JEJU ISLAND SHORT STAY TRAVEL INFORMATION

VISAS:

A visa is not required for Australian passport holders for entry into South Korea for stays up to 90 days.

At the time of writing, Australian's travelling visa-free to South Korea are temporarily exempt from requiring a K-ETA until 31 December 2026.

South Korea Entry Requirements - All travellers are required to complete an entry declaration form (arrival card) when travelling to South Korea. This can be completed online, up to 72 hours before arrival in South Korea. For more information on the e-Arrival card, please visit the following website: <https://www.e-arrivalcard.go.kr/portal/main/index.do>

Please be advised that your passport must have at least six months validity left on it when you arrive back into Australia. Visa procedures and requirements may change at any time. These changes are often made by the relevant embassy or consulate, Wendy Wu Tours acts as a third party and has no influence on the process of a visa.

INSURANCE:

It is a condition of your booking that you are insured for the duration of your trip. We recommend comprehensive travel insurance to cover cancellation, medical requirements, luggage, repatriations and additional expenses. At a minimum, the policy is required to cover medical requirements including medical evacuations / repatriations. The choice of insurer is yours. We strongly suggest you purchase insurance at the time you pay your deposit. This is because cancellation fees and charges are payable from that time.

We may request you to provide evidence that you have taken out and paid for a policy to comply with this condition. If you fail to provide a certificate of currency of insurance within a reasonable time after our request, then this will be deemed a cancellation by you and standard cancellation fees will apply.

TRANSPORT:

Coaches: Please note, the nature of the Jeju Island tours that take place on Day 2 and 3 will be in a seat-in-coach style. This means, you will enjoy your tour within a shared coach with other passengers that may or may not be a part of a Wendy Wu Tour.

Whilst onboard, you will be accompanied by an English speaking tour guide that will also be joining you as you explore the various sites mentioned on your itinerary.
